Ralph Scott Lifeservices is celebrating 50 years of being a vital part of the local community here in Alamance and Caswell Counties, operating 17 residential facilities, 15 independent living apartments, and the Starpoint Day Program for adults with intellectual disabilities. RSL is grateful to have caring and giving patrons who have continuously helped fund our on-going mission and vision to provide homes and services to the people we support.

our goal to replace outdated, older vehicles, and have decided to continue van purchases as our annual golf tournament goal. We hope we can count on your participation and sponsorship to come and enjoy 18 holes at The Valley Golf Course to enjoy food, games, prizes, and more. All monies raised will go directly to fulfilling the goal of purchasing a vehicle. If you have further questions about the tournament or sponsorship, please contact Lea Clapp at (336) 227-1011, ext. 40 or email at lea@rsl.org.

Warm regards,
RSL Board of Directors

As we all try to find a new normal and stay safe during the covid pandemic, we understand that the last two years have looked different for everyone. We have been incredibly fortunate to stay open, retain our staff, and continue to keep the people in our care as safe as possible, and we are extremely grateful for that constant. As with any non-profit, we are always in need of updates, funding, donations, and more, so fundraising never truly stops for us.

Because of the great turnout and participation during our last tournament, we were able to purchase a brand new vehicle for one of our group homes. Because of that success, we are continuing
