

NONPROFITS

2025 Funded Partners

Alamance Community College's College & Career Readiness: Free, accessible education to help students reach their goals. Programs include high school equivalency, English language learning, college transition courses, classes in digital literacy & workforce preparation.

Alamance County Meals on Wheels: We provide nutritional services which improve and enhance quality of life; nourish the body, mind, & spirit; promote independent living for seniors and their families.

Alamance Dream Center: Our dream is to create a sense of belonging within our community so that we can inspire, develop, train, and advocate for children, students, and families.

Alamance Partnership for Children: Supporting families and young children from birth through age five through early learning, literacy, health, & family support programs. Our mission is to help every child grow, learn, & thrive, preparing them for school and life success.

Allied Churches of Alamance County: Committed to meeting the essential needs of our community while empowering individuals to become self-sufficient. Through our Emergency Shelter, Empowerment Center, and Community Kitchen, we offer practical resources to those facing homelessness and hunger.

Benevolence Farm: We seek to cultivate leadership, promote sustainable livelihoods, and reap structural change with individuals impacted by the criminal legal system in NC.

Burlington Community Land Trust: Our mission is to promote sustainable & resilient communities, and equitable opportunities to homeownership through the development & support of permanent affordable housing in under-resourced neighborhoods.

Burlington Development Corporation's Crump Village Education and Resource Center: Supporting the Pre-Kinders program, a 4-star licensed childcare facility, operated at no cost to Burlington Housing Authority residents, to provide academic activities for economically disadvantaged children age 3-5 that will prepare them for kindergarten & future academic success.

Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Raleigh: Walks alongside those in need, easing the burden of poverty and offering hope through life-changing solutions. Through our Immigration Legal Services Program, we provide trusted, high-quality, low-cost legal assistance to help immigrant families secure benefits and build brighter futures.

Church World Services: We welcome refugees, immigrants, and asylum-seekers from around the globe into lives of freedom, hope, and opportunity through direct services, advocacy, leadership development, and relationship-building in our community.

CrossRoads: We promote hope, healing and empowerment to child and adult survivors of sexual assault, abuse, & human trafficking through confidential counseling, advocacy, child medical treatment, education, and community awareness.

MORE GIVING OPTIONS →

NONPROFITS

2025 Funded Partners

Freedom's Hope: A center for progress that provides a physically, mentally & emotionally safe environment for people in crisis. Our goal is to meet their immediate needs while identifying root causes for the crisis. We help create goals to alleviate the crisis by connecting to area resources to obtain overall stability that can be maintained long term.

Habitat for Humanity of Alamance County: Seeking to put God's Love into action, we bring people together to build homes, communities, and hope. We envision a world where everyone in our community has a decent place to live.

HOPE Clinic: Improve the health and well-being of under-served populations by providing quality physical therapy treatment and fostering student community service and clinical experience.

Junior Achievement of the Triad: We empower students with financial literacy, career-ready skills, and experiential learning opportunities that connect education to real-world success.

Open Door Clinic of Alamance County: Offers free comprehensive health care services with dignity, equity, professionalism & compassion for uninsured and under-served residents.

SAFE: Empowering individuals & strengthening families by respectfully and compassionately providing food assistance, developing relationships, identifying needs beyond food, & seeking solutions to those needs.

Sustainable Alamance: We acknowledge the value of all our citizens in building a stronger & more sustainable community by restoring men and women, living in or near poverty because of employment discrimination due to criminal histories, to a full and productive place in our community.

The Salvation Army of Alamance County: We are committed to meeting the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of our community by offering spiritual growth and fellowship, empowering youth through after-school and summer programs, and providing vital basic needs to help families thrive.

Women's Resource Center of Alamance County: Empowering women to improve and enrich their lives, supporting them through life transitions to achieve stability, self-sufficiency, and success. When women succeed, communities thrive.