

2027 Community Investment Grants Request for Proposals

Investing in Youth Opportunity & Financial Security in Alamance County

Purpose

United Way of Alamance County (UWAC) is seeking Letters of Intent from nonprofit agencies providing services that advance Youth Opportunity and Financial Security for individuals and families in Alamance County. These grant investments aim to support programs that help children and youth succeed academically and socially, equip individuals and families with tools for long-term financial stability, and/or address critical community needs in alignment with UWAC's mission to mobilize resources and partner with the community to improve lives.

Priority will be given to evidence-based programs that demonstrate strong collaboration with local nonprofits. Proposals must actively respond to the unique needs of Alamance County residents, with a specific focus on supporting the ALICE (Asset Limited, Income Constrained, Employed) population.

Focus Areas

Youth Opportunity: The Youth Opportunity pillar focuses on empowering young people to succeed through education, skill-building, and leadership development. It aims to create pathways that help youth overcome barriers and achieve their full potential in school, work, and life. By investing in youth, United Way of Alamance County supports stronger local communities and a brighter future for our area's young people.
